

ROY'S ART FAIR

Roy's Art Fair is back, and better than ever as we return with the 9th edition of our event. Continuing to bring you accessibility, affordability and a unique way of viewing and buying your artwork.

This Autumn we are returning to our iconic flagship venue, Bargehouse from 28th Sept - 1st Oct. Tickets are FREE, and all are welcome!

Bargehouse, Oxo Tower Wharf situated on London's glorious South bank, will be host to over 80 handpicked and carefully curated artists, who will be with us exhibiting and selling their unique artwork over a four-day art spectacular.

Following a break of just over a year, we are back and bigger than ever with brand new features for 2023, as we bring you our most finely tuned and ambitious fair to date.

Roy's Art Fair is an approachable way to discover and celebrate a community of creatives. Bringing you artists of all mediums and experience, we pride ourselves in providing an opportunity for the public to buy affordable artwork direct from the artist. Rarely will you have an opportunity to meet, discuss and buy straight from the creator of the work, providing an extra story to the pieces you fall in love with.
